

Know that however long we are apart,
However far we are apart,
You will remain in that special part of my heart,
Reserved for you and you alone.

And I will see before me daily,
A glimpse of your lovely face,
Awaiting the opportunity to hold it and kiss it,
In person.

While I'm away,
Draw from the bears,
The love I've left behind,
Until I can deliver in person,
What I wish to.

Until then,
Kiss me goodnight on the evening star,
And I will return your sweet touch,
With each star rise.

CYK everywhere, anywhere, anytime.
